

Wailers Accomplishments

... Bob Marley and the Wailers have sold over 250 million records worldwide.

... The Wailers now consist of original members who recorded and/or toured with Bob Marley and the Wailers.

... The Wailers "live" show consists of Bob Marley and the Wailers songs such as:

Lively Up Yourself	Could You Be Loved
Satisfy My Soul	Trench Town Rock
I Shot the Sheriff	Roots Rock Reggae
Get Up Stand Up	Who the Cap Fit
Kinky Reggae	Is This Love
Redemption Song	One Love
Exodus	Jamming
No Woman No Cry	Buffalo Soldier
War
Stir It Up

Plus many other old songs written by members of the Wailers that were performed live during the Bob Marley and the Wailers tours, as well as new original Wailers songs.

... Aston "Familyman" Barrett is the bass player and musical leader for the Wailers and was the musical director for Bob Marley.

... "Familyman" is the sole living musician who was with Bob Marley from the beginning of Bob's career to his unfortunate death. ... "Familyman", as the co-founder and bass player for the Wailers, was the dominant musical force and the architect behind creating reggae music as a genre.

... The Wailers line-up includes a horn section that recorded, but rarely toured, with Bob Marley and the Wailers. ... The Wailers are the most recognized 'reggae' group in the world.

... "Familyman" has played and recorded with other superstar artists such as Eric Clapton and Stevie Wonder and has played on over 65 records/discs throughout his career.

... Original Wailers guitarist, Al Anderson, toured and played on recordings with many music legends such as Steve Winwood, Santana and Lauren Hill.

... Time magazine named the album Exodus, written and recorded by Bob Marley and the Wailers, as album of the century in 1999.

... Al Anderson and "Familyman" were an integral part of the TNT "Bob Marley Tribute" special.